

REPORT ON ONLINE NATIONAL FDP ON IMPRESSIVE SOCIAL ETIQUETTE (04.11.2022)

Department of English of Indian Institute of Management and Commerce (IIMC), Hyderabad organized a National Level Online Faculty Development Programme on “ Impressive Social Etiquette ( Manners Matters)” on 4th November 2022. The programme was conducted through online mode via Google Meet and the timings for the programme were 2 PM to 4 PM.

Dr. Ashalatha Reddy, Former Principal of Sree Vidyanikehtan Degree College, Tirupati was the resource person for this FDP.

The FDP is open to all the Faculty members and Research scholars all over India and the programme is free of cost.

Objective of FDP:

To enhance self-esteem through sensitizing about proper behaviour, socially and professionally in the informal and formal circumstances.

Expected Outcome:

Etiquette gives the confidence to deal with different situations in life , as a part of life skills and eliminates discourteous behaviour.

Total of 2,190 participants have registered for the programme across India from various disciplines of subjects.

The FDP was a grand success and the resource person has shared various aspects of being professional and following social etiquette practices in the personal and professional life. She has demonstrated various real life examples for this purpose and gave a clear view and understanding. There was overwhelming response and feed back from the participants about the session.

The FDP Committee is thankful to the Principal and Management of IIMC for continuous encouragement and support for all the days of event. They extend their gratitude to the resource person Dr Ashalatha Reddy , Participants of the programme, Faculty of IIMC for their support and technical team for the excellent technical coordination and arrangement during the session.
